

The Wisconsin No Call List is the way it should be. We do not need the Federal List messing things up. The Commercial Bankers are only interested in making money for themselves and not taking care of their Wisconsin customers. I do not want any and I repeat ANY telemarket calls what so ever. I want something, I go looking for it. I do not need them calling me nor do I need any political parties or politicians calling.